

A DADLAN? WHAT'S A DADLAN?

A DadLAN! Why, didn't you know?

A DadLAN is more than just a social network, it's a place to connect.

It's a community that understands the importance of face-to-face connections in today's digital age.

We bring Dads together through regular in-person gatherings and online events.

DO I NEED TO BE A DAD?

No, we are an open and inclusive group with outcomes oriented towards Dads, men, and family.

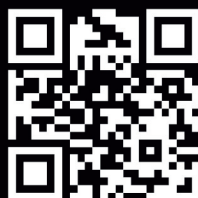

As a mental health-focused charity, the gaming element is our way to improve social connection, reduce of loneliness, and have some fun!

WHY WOULD YOU BE INTERESTED?

Being a Dad is great, but it can also be socially isolating and challenging.

To combat this, we get together online and in person to play a range of video games and socialise.

We find it's a great way to connect with other local dads and maybe even talk about other things too.

WHAT GAMES DO WE PLAY?

We play all the old and retro games you remember, with a healthy selection of modern games of course.

No matter the genre we'll have someone that plays your game. FPS, RTS, RPG, MOBA, MMOs, Simulators, or Arcade? We probably have people playing it.

WANT TO START A SUBNET?

We call our local groups (or chapters) subnets.

Our mission is to help Dads across Australia, so if you want to start one in your area, we can help with that.

Reach out to us on the Discord server and we'll make it happen!
